MINT MUSEUM UPTOWN

Mint Museum Uptown houses an internationally-renowned Craft + Design Collection, as well as outstanding collections of American, Modern & Contemporary, and European art. Designed by Machado and Silvetti Associates of Boston, the five-story, 145,000-square-foot facility combines inspiring architecture with groundbreaking exhibitions to provide visitors with memorable educational and cultural experiences. Located in the heart of Charlotte’s center city, Mint Museum Uptown is an integral part of Levine Center for the Arts, a cultural campus that includes the Bechtler Museum of Modern Art, the Harvey B. Gantt Center for African-American Arts + Culture, the Knight Theater, and the Duke Energy Center. The museum features a range of visitor amenities, including a 240-seat auditorium, a hands-on family gallery, studios, restaurant, and Museum Shop.

Non-profit organizations will receive a 25% discount with proof of 501(c)(3) status on Sunday – Thursday rentals.
ROBERT HAYWOOD MORRISON ATRIUM

The multi-story atrium is available to host private events after 6 p.m. and during some daytime hours. This grand space features a 60- by 60-foot glass wall overlooking Levine Avenue for the Arts and the Knight Theater. The dramatic interior includes richly stained hardwood floors and a wood slat ceiling. The atrium showcases the fascinating four-story textile work by artist Sheila Hicks, Mega Footprint Near the Hutch (May I Have This Dance?), and a monumental canvas by Sam Francis, Untitled (Sea rst). The 4,000-square-foot event space will accommodate up to 180 people for a seated dinner or 400+ for a standing reception.

Sunday–Thursday $2,800; + Van Allen Terrace $3,200
Friday–Saturday $3,500; + Van Allen Terrace $4,200

SALLY AND BILL VAN ALLEN TERRACE AND CARROLL ENTRYWAY

This sheltered terrace offers open-air views of Charlotte’s cityscape, the Mint’s interactive grand staircase, and the beautiful architecture of Levine Center for the Arts. Guests start in the Carroll Entryway, home to the Mint’s signature Royal Blue Mint Chandelier by glass artist Dale Chihuly and other works from the Mint’s permanent collection. Can accommodate 325 in terrace and gallery for a standing reception or 64 for a seated event. These spaces are not available as standalone rentals.

Sunday–Thursday $1,500; Friday–Saturday n/a

CARROLL ENTRYWAY

* The use of museum-provided audio and visual equipment may require an in-house technician at an additional hourly rate. Our exclusive stage provider and in-house equipment technician is Doug Davis Audio Visual. You may inquire about rates and specifications by calling 704.622.8578 or email D2productionservices@gmail.com.
JAMES B. DUKE AUDITORIUM

The auditorium is located just off the atrium. A 240-seat theater fully equipped with included modern audio and video features,* a mezzanine, and multiple entrances, this space is perfect to host lectures, symposia, music performances, and films. Glass artist Tom Patti’s commission Spectral Boundary spans two doors as part of the auditorium’s inner wall, and the wood, rubber, and steel sculpture vinge.segla adorns the other side.

$1,500 (five hours and $50 each additional hour)

MATTYE AND MARC SILVERMAN GRAND ROOM AND TRUSTEES TERRACE

This Level 5 space boasts stunning views of the uptown cityscape. The Grand Room, a 4,009-square-foot, modern audio- and video-equipped space,* will seat up to 225 people for a formal dinner or hold 400 people for a standing reception. The dramatic semi-covered terrace, approximately 4,000 square feet, provides additional outdoor entertaining space.

Sunday–Thursday $3,500; Friday–Saturday $4,500

LEVEL FIVE

The Expansion Space located on the level five is a unique hybrid industrial style event space that hosts both Mint special exhibits, and a variety of events. In addition to being used as an exhibit space, the 7,500 square foot room has been used for galas, fashion shows, weddings, and holiday parties. The space also works well in a tandem form with the Silverman Grand Room and Trustees Terrace. The combination of the entire level five space can host a reception style event for several hundred guests.

$5,000
BOARDROOM

This space on the mezzanine level features natural light, streetscape views, state-of-the-art technology,* and a dynamic view of the Chihuly chandelier along with other works of art. This multipurpose space can host 24 people board-style, 30 people crescent-style, 80 people theater-style, 80 people cocktail-style, or 64 people seated.

Daytime $800 (five hours and $50 each additional hour); Evening and Friday–Sunday: $1,000 (five hours)

CONFERENCE ROOM

An executive meeting room or lunch space with AV equipment* for up to 10 people, overlooking the streetscape and Halcyon restaurant.

$500 (five hours and $50 each additional hour)

GALLERIES

The museum’s permanent collection and special exhibition galleries can also be opened after hours to allow guests to tour the facility privately.

$200 per hour (additional special exhibition fees may be required for certain galleries)

* The use of museum-provided audio and visual equipment may require an in-house technician at an additional hourly rate. RENTAL GUIDELINES

The Mint Museum, a private non-profit institution, receives wide ranging support from the community for the education and enjoyment of the public. Its buildings and collections are unique and their protection is the responsibility of the museum staff. The use of the museum’s facilities is made available to certain groups under specific conditions outlined below for the purpose of making the museum and its programs more widely known and available to the public. The fees charged are to reimburse the institution for its overhead expenses and to cover the wear and tear on its facilities.

Photography permissions: Tripods, lights, cords or other filming equipment beyond handheld cameras will not be permitted in galleries or spaces that contain artwork and/or artwork cases without prior arrangement. For more information about the Mint’s photography policies and to seek permission to film, please submit a request at http://www.mintmuseum.org/about/policies/. Requests must be submitted at least one month prior to your desired filming date and may be subject to additional fees. Any onsite photography for news media must be approved by the Public Relations Director.

*Original works of art on the premises of the Museum may be protected by copyright and are not to be used for commercial (non-personal) purposes without permission from the copyright holder. The Mint Museum will not secure copyright permissions on behalf of any third party.

Set-up and breakdown for the event, including decorations and scheduling of deliveries, must be approved in advance with the Special Events office. The Mint is not responsible for any items left on the premises. Items are not allowed outside on terraces overnight.

Exhibitions cannot be rearranged, added, and/or removed, and may change throughout the year.

The Special Events Team does not perform the duties of a professional event planner or wedding director. The Special Events Team is present to assist in the functions’ logistics, protect the museums’ facility and collections, and act as a liaison between renter’s vendors and museum staff.

Publicity must be approved by the museum. If you plan to distribute a news release about your event, it must be reviewed by the museum’s Public Relations and Publications Director prior to dissemination. Any onsite media coverage must be monitored by a member of The Mint Museum staff. Use of The Mint Museum logo is not permitted except by special arrangement with the museum. The renter is not to promote their event as a museum sponsored event. All invitation reception locations must read: Mint Museum Uptown at Levine Center for the Arts, or Mint Museum Randolph.

Non-profit organizations must provide a copy of their 501(c)(3) status in order to receive the discounted rental rate. Discounts available Sunday–Thursday only.

Entertainment, including any applicable licenses for live or recorded music, is the sole responsibility of the renter. Music at Mint Museum Uptown must conclude by 11 p.m.

Tables are included in the rental. White padded chairs may be rented for $3 each. Tablecloths and other décor items are not provided by the museum.
Please note: Helium balloons, loose glitter, birdseed, bubbles, or sparklers are not allowed on the museum campus, including the front stairs. Cleaning fees will apply if any of these items are brought on premises.

Acts of God that cause any failure of performance shall not be the responsibility of either party, and in such case the Mint will make every effort to reschedule the event. If the event cannot be rescheduled, the Mint will refund the rental amount minus the non-refundable deposit.

Candles: Votives, tea lights, and any other candles with glass covered sides of minimum 1-inch coverage are permitted.

Smoking & Vaping are not permitted on the museum campus.

Event parking in the Duke Energy Center off west Stonewall (130 West Stonewall Street) is $5 with museum validation. The Renter may host parking for guests by purchasing parking coupons in advance from the Special Events Team.

Due to alcohol licensing requirements, casino-style or other gaming activities are not allowed.

Gallery admissions are offered at discounted rates to renters for their guests’ enjoyment and to enhance their museum experience.

Membership has its benefits. We look forward to hosting social events at the museum but ask that you join our museum family. This will provide you with free unlimited admission to museum exhibitions and many special events for a full year, as well as Museum Shop discounts and other benefits. If you are not a museum member, please complete the membership application and return to the address listed.
