

The Dwelle-McBryde Society

In 1933, Mary Myers Dwelle began to raise funds to relocate the Charlotte Mint building to house the first art museum in the state of North Carolina. Her pioneering efforts inspired the establishment of the Dwelle Society, which acknowledges the outstanding generosity of donors who make a planned gift/ bequest to The Mint Museum. Years later in 2021, the museum's planned giving group has been renamed The Dwelle-McBryde Society in honor of Charlotte attorney Neill McBryde's steadfast support of the museum, and enthusiasm for planned giving across all sectors. All individuals who document a planned gift will be recognized and welcomed as members of the Dwelle-McBryde Society.

As evidence of my desire to provide a legacy of support for The Mint Museum, I hereby confirm that I have made a provision for a gift to The Mint Museum in my estate plans. I understand that this commitment is revocable and can be modified at any time.
