MINT MUSEUM RANDOLPH

Mint Museum Randolph, located in what was the original branch of the United States Mint, opened in 1936 in Charlotte’s Eastover neighborhood as the first art museum in North Carolina. Today, intimate galleries invite visitors to engage with Art of the Ancient Americas, Ceramics and Decorative Arts, Fashion, European, African, and Asian art, among other collections, along with a Heritage Gallery describing the museum’s fascinating history. Resources include an expansive front and back lawn, a reference library with over 15,000 volumes, a theater featuring lectures and performances, and a Museum Shop.
NANCY A. AND J. MASON WALLACE ATRIUM

The atrium, featuring natural vegetation and floor-to-ceiling views of the terrace, gardens and park, hosts private events after hours when the Museum closes. The atrium has a capacity up to 100 for seated dinner or 200 for a reception.

Sunday–Thursday $1,700; Friday–Saturday $2,000

IVEY FORUM

This versatile space, on the Lower Level, features Star Gallery works of art by local students (during the school year) and kitchen access. It can accommodate 80 people theater-style, 72 for a seated meal, 36 in classroom style or 25 people board room style. It is an ideal venue for smaller seated dinners, corporate meetings, retreats, and seminars.

$600 (Five hours and $50 each additional hour)

VAN EVERY AUDITORIUM

The auditorium, located just behind the atrium, is a 174-seat circular theater with multiple entrances in the round with audio and video features and multiple entrances ideal for lectures, music performances, and film screenings.* The space is equipped with a removable podium with attached microphone, screen and projector.

$1,000

* The use of museum-provided audio and visual equipment may require an in-house technician at an additional hourly rate. Our preferred stage provider and in-house equipment technician is Doug Davis Audio Visual. You may inquire about rates and specifications by calling 704.622.8578 or email D2productionservices@gmail.com.
FRONT LAWN

Our stunning and spacious front lawn is available to rent for outdoor functions. The grounds are surrounded by foliage and gardens that are maintained by the Charlotte Garden Club. Renters are able to tent the lawn in order to provide privacy and protection from the elements. This is not a stand-alone rental, so renters must also choose an indoor space to rent for access to the catering kitchen and indoor restrooms.

FRONT TERRACE

The Mint Museum’s front terrace offers sweeping views overlooking the front lawn and Eastover Park. This space is perfect for cocktail hours, receptions and outdoor dinners under the stars. We can host private events after hours when the Museum closes. This space can also be tented for inclement weather. The front terrace is not available as a stand-alone rental.

$1,000

EAGLE TERRACE

The historic terrace with views of the Mint’s original 1836 façade capped off by the museum’s signature golden eagle, can accommodate 225 for outdoor events or ceremonies. The Eagle Terrace is not available as a stand-alone rental.

Sunday–Thursday $1,000; Friday–Saturday $1,200

GALLERIES

The museum’s permanent collection and special exhibition galleries can also be opened after hours to allow guests to conduct a private, self-guided tour the museum.

$200 per hour (additional special exhibition fees may be required for certain galleries)

DELHOM GALLERY

This gallery on the museum’s Upper Level is a unique setting for art lovers featuring glass-enclosed showcases of work from the Mint’s extensive and renowned Decorative Arts Collection. This space can accommodate 120 for a seated dinner or 140 for a reception. Events in the Delhom Gallery must take place outside of the museum’s operating hours.

Sunday–Thursday $1,200; Friday–Saturday $1,600

HERITAGE GALLERY

This educational gallery that surrounds the Van Every Auditorium tells the illustrious history of the Mint Museum from inception to present day. This space is not a stand-alone rental, and must be rented along with another first floor space.

$500

RENTAL GUIDELINES

The Mint Museum, a private non-profit institution, receives wide ranging support from the community for the education and enjoyment of the public. Its buildings and collections are unique and their protection is the responsibility of the museum staff. The use of the museum’s facilities is made available to certain groups under specific conditions outlined below for the purpose of making the museum and its programs more widely known and available to the public. The fees charged are to reimburse the institution for its overhead expenses and to cover the wear and tear on its facilities.

Photography permissions: Those who book events that include the presence of professional photographers may conduct unlimited photography during those events in the museum’s public event spaces. Photography in galleries during privately booked events must be approved by the museum’s Registration Department to ensure copyright rules involving images of works of art are followed. (No flash may be used and no photography is permitted where “No Photography “ signs are on display). Any professional photography on museum premises conducted outside the time frame of a paid event must also receive Registration approval and may be subject to separate location fees. Onsite photography for news media or nonprofit use must be approved by the Public Relations Director.

Set-up and breakdown for the event, including decorations and scheduling of deliveries, must be approved in advance with the Special Events office. The Mint is not responsible for any items left on the premises. Items are not allowed outside on terraces overnight.

Exhibitions cannot be rearranged, added, and/or removed, and may change throughout the year.

The Special Events Team does not perform the duties of a professional event planner or wedding director. The Special Events Team is present to assist in the functions’ logistics, protect the museums’ facility and collections, and act as a liaison between renter’s vendors and museum staff.

Publicity must be approved by the museum. If you plan to distribute a news release about your event, it must be reviewed by the museum’s Public Relations and Publications Director prior to dissemination. Any onsite media coverage must be monitored by a member of The Mint Museum staff. Use of The Mint Museum logo is not permitted except by special arrangement with the museum. The renter is not to promote their event as a museum sponsored event. All invitation reception locations must read: Mint Museum Uptown at Levine Center for the Arts, or Mint Museum Randolph.

Non-profit organizations must provide a copy of their 501(c)(3) status in order to receive the 25% discounted rental rate. Discounts available Sunday–Thursday only.

Entertainment, including any applicable licenses for live or recorded music, is the sole responsibility of the renter. Music at Mint Museum Randolph must conclude by 11 p.m. Monday-Saturday and 9:00 p.m. on Sundays.

Tables are included in the rental. White padded chairs may be rented for $3 each. Table cloths and other décor items are not provided by the museum.
Tent Set up and Breakdown must be approved by the Special Events office. No vehicles are allowed on the grass without adequate ground protection boards or mats to protect against damage to the grass and creating ruts.

Please note: Loose glitter, birdseed, or bubbles are not allowed on the museum campus, including the front stairs. Cleaning fees will apply if any of these items are brought on premises.

Acts of God that cause any failure of performance shall not be the responsibility of either party, and in such case the Mint will make every effort to reschedule the event. If the event cannot be rescheduled, the Mint will refund the rental amount minus the non-refundable deposit.

Candles: Votives, tea lights, and any other candles with glass covered sides of minimum 1-inch coverage are permitted.

Smoking & Vaping are not permitted on the museum campus.

Fundraising events that include live or silent auctions must be approved in advance by the Special Events Team. Auctions are not guaranteed to be approved.

Event parking Complimentary parking at Randolph Road

Due to alcohol licensing requirements, casino- style or other gaming activities are not allowed.

Gallery admissions are offered at discounted rates to renters for their guests’ enjoyment and to enhance their museum experience.

Membership has its benefits. We look forward to hosting social events at the museum but ask that you join our museum family. This will provide you with free unlimited admission to museum exhibitions and many special events for a full year, as well as Museum Shop discounts and other benefits. If you are not a museum member, please complete the membership application and return to the address listed.
MINT BAR PRICING

The Mint carries all ABC permits and is the exclusive supplier of alcoholic beverages for all events. Any alcoholic beverages served at The Mint Museum must be purchased through the museum.
